SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, July 8.— Thursday, the evening of the hop given each month in the 4th Cavalry Club, was the incentive of much entertaining, the several dinner parties going to the club late in the evening, where the dancing was unusually delightful. Capt. and Mrs. Douglas Mac-Caskey were supper hosts, when they entertained for 12 guests. Plunk characterized the decorations of this attractively appointed affair, with the dainty centerpieces composed of phlox in the several shades of pink. Covers were placed for Lieut. and Mrs. De Russy Hoyle, Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Cheney, Lieut. and Mrs. William Nalle, Lieut. and Mrs. Howell Estes, Lieut. and Mrs. Philip Kiehl, Lieut. Raymond McQuillan and Eugene Lohman and Capt. and Mrs. MacCaskey.

Lieut. and Mrs. John Herr gave a supper for the Misses Caroline and Esther McMahon, Mildred Ponting, Dorothy Forsyth, Hortense Short and Miss McCue, who is the house-guest of Dr. and Mrs. Duennert, Lieut. and Mrs. John D. Burnett, Lieut. and Mrs.
John Hauser, Lieut. and Mrs. James Chaney, Mrs. Robert Duennert, Lieut.
Hornby Evans, V. V. Enyart, William McCulloch, Daniel Murphy, Edward Rose, Charles Haverkamp, Eugene Owen, William Dorman and Dr.
Smith.

Mrs. Gideon Van Poole was the overnight guest of Lieut. and Mrs.
E. G. Cullum for Thursday, the evening of the hop.

Lieut. and Mrs. Jerome Pillow entertained at supper on Thursday for 16, at which the decorations were carried out in the dainty combination of Shasta daisies and pink sweet peas.
Present were Col. and Mrs. John F.
Gulfoyle, Capt. and Mrs. Hamilton Hawkins, Capt. and Mrs. Conrad Babcock, Lieut. and Mrs. Kerr T. Riggs, Maj. and Mrs. Guy G. Palmer, Miss Dorothy Palmer, Capt. and Mrs. David Strome from Honolulu and Lieut. Odis Saddler.

Lieut. and Mrs. Cullum gave a dinner on Thursday, entertaining for Mrs. Van Poole, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Vandever and Lieut. Ballard Lyler. The table's attractive appointments were carried out in lavender and white, a bowl of lavender and purple asters making an effective centerpiece.

Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre were hosts at dinner on Thursday, when their guests were Capt. and Mrs.
Charles Lloyd and Capt. and Mrs. Pelham D. Glassford. A large silver bowl filled with English daisies made the central decoration for the table.

On Friday of last week Mrs. William Alken was hostess for the Schofield Musical Club, which meets once a month. A delightful program was rendered, Chopin being the study for the afternoon. Mrs. Elvid Hunt read a very interesting sketch of the composer's life, and afterward Mrs.
Charles Nayler played in a charming manner two of his selections. Mrs. Jerome Pillow sang a number of dainty French chansons, among them "Pou d'chese," and later "Clayton John" and a banjo song; Mrs. William Alken gave "An Open Secret," by Woodman, and "A Southern Lullaby," by Neld-linger, and the program was brought to a close by Mrs. Robert Sears' beautiful rendition of a number of Nevin's dainty piano sketches. Those present enjoyed greatly this unusual pleasure, there being so little music of the better kind at the garrison, and it is hoped that this little club, which has been formed quite recently, will form a nucleus for a much larger organization, which will permit many to share its benefits and pleasure. The guests present on this afternoon were Messdames Henry C. Hodges, Miss Evelyn Hodges, Lewis Sorley, Byard Sreed, John Reardon and L. B. Wilson.

On Wednesday afternoon there was a game between the first and second teams of the polo association, which brought out quite a number of spectators, who later went down to the Mounted Service Club pavilion for the tea-dance given by the association.
Mrs. Lucie A. Beard acted as hostess for the afternoon.

Lieut. and Mrs. Robert P. Harbo-gave an informal tea on Thursday afternoon after the ball game with Santa Clara in honor of the Misses Adeline Smith and Edna McDuffy, who, with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kimball, motored over from Haleiwa for the game.

Mrs. Kerr T. Riggs entertained the Thursday Morning Reading Club this week.

On the night of July 15 Dr. and Mrs.
Jewell will entertain with a dinner-dance at the Haleiwa Hotel.

The fourth birthday of the Hoyle twins, Edward DeRussy and Susie Lane, were celebrated on Thursday, when they gave a "party" for some of the little folks of the neighborhood, including Jack and Howard Bloombergh, George Converse, Harold Browning, and Pelham, Elizabeth and Dorothy Glassford. The children played on the lawn for a while, then enjoyed the delights of the birthday cakes and ices.

Mrs. Allen B. Smith was the honored guest at the three table bridge given by Mrs. Swift Martin on Thursday afternoon. The interesting game of rubber auction was played at each table, with Mrs. William McCleave, Mrs.
Hamilton Hawkins, and Mrs. Horace Bloombergh proving the final winners of the high scores, to whom were awarded brass candlesticks of most attractive designs. Mrs. Smith was presented with the daintiest of eggshell lacquer powder-boxes. A refreshing course of ices and cakes was served at the conclusion of the playing. The guests invited to meet Mrs.
Smith were Messdames Walter Short, Hamilton Hawkins, Henry Lantry, William McCleave, Robert Cheney, Clarence R. Day, Walter Fick, Pelham D. Glassford, Frank Keefer and Horace Bloombergh.

The many friends of Maj. Walter Short will be glad to learn of his favorable progress at the Mayo Hospital where he recently underwent an operation.

At the delightful bridge party given last Saturday evening by Dr. and Mrs.
Walter R. Pick, the prizes were won by Dr. and Mrs. George H. Callender, Lieut. and Mrs. Roland Gaugler, Capt.
John Corey and Mrs. Daniel Gienty, who were given silk hose. Madame McCleave and Mrs. Gaugler, as the honorary guests, were presented with dainty pieces of Madeira embroidery.

On Thursday of last week, at the Short quarters, a playlet written and acted by the children of the Cavalry post took place, with a few of the grown-ups invited in for audience, who to say the least, were greatly edified by the creditable efforts of the ambitious young people. Those who took part were Fanny and Helen Herr, Henrietta Hall, George and Scott Riggs, "Babe" Prunty and Conrad Babcock.
After the play, Helen Herr and Henrietta Hall gave a number of solo dances in costume, which were pretty and very gracefully done. Later Mrs.
Short served delicious refreshments.

On Friday Lieut. and Mrs. Robert P. Harboild gave a buffet supper before the regimental hop, to which were invited Maj. and Mrs. Guy G. Palmer, Miss Dorothy Palmer, Maj. and Mrs.
Thomas F. Schley, Miss Lella Wilson, Col. Carl Reichman, Miss Campbell, Lieut. and Mrs. John D. Burnett, Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre, Capt. and Mrs. Charles Willard, Capt. and Mrs. LaVergne Gregg, Capt. William Doane, Lieut. and Mrs. James Chaney, Col. and Mrs. Frank Keefer, Mrs. Ellen Jordan, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Daly, Dr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Bliss, Lieut. and Mrs. John Herr, Dr. and Mrs. Albert T. White, Miss Elizabeth Little, Lieut. and Mrs. Richard Taylor and Lieuts. James Uilo, Eugene Owen, Raymond McQuillan, Charles Haverkamp, and Messrs. John Macaulay and Grieg. In addition to the living and dining rooms of the Harboild quarters a large tent was erected on the lawn where chairs were placed and a number of the guests served here. A novel scheme of finding the supper partner was used in the dainty Japanese cards which were drawn by the guests upon arriving, there being pairs for each. Yellow was used throughout the decorations of the house, there being baskets of nasturtiums and golden crapeolais placed on every available table and stand.

isville, Ky., for the French troops.

KILL COCKROACHES

Easy Matter to Exterminate These Filthy Pests.

Even a feeble imagination can think of the germs the cockroach must bring as it crawls around the kitchen and entry, contaminating and spoiling food. Now is the time to kill off the cockroaches and free your home from the repulsive insects. A dozen cockroaches killed now is better than kiling hundreds later.

A two-ounce box of Stearns Electric Paste, which you can get for 25 cents from any druggist, will rid your home of cockroaches or water bugs. It is much better than powders, as it can not blow away and get into the food.
Easy to use and an absolute exterminator. Directions in 15 languages in every package.—Adv.

HAVE YOU DYSPESIA?

Can't Eat, Can't Sleep, Always in Pain and Suffering

"Eat What You Want," Says This Physician.

"Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, in almost every instance, due to hyperacidity. Too much acid first produces dyspepsia and indigestion; next the stomach walls become irritated and it is only a short time until it eats through the walls, causing ulcers in the abdomen, which in turn are followed by cancer and death; therefore stomach sufferers are required to avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Unfortunately, such a rule eliminates most foods which are pleasant to the taste as well as those which are rich in blood, flesh and nerve building properties. This is the reason why dyspeptics and stomach sufferers are usually so lacking in that vital energy which can only come from a well-fed body. For the benefit of those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starchy, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to keep up a miserable existence on gluten products, I would suggest that you try a meal of any food or foods which you may like in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness, you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Bisurated magnesia is doubtless the best food corrective and antacid known. Drugs only upset the stomach. Bisurated magnesia has no direct action on the stomach; but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which inflames the delicate stomach lining, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug. As a physician, I believe in the use of medicine whenever necessary, but I cannot see the sense of dosing an inflamed and irritated stomach with drugs instead of getting rid of the acid—the cause of all the trouble. Get a little bisurated magnesia from your druggist, eat what you want at your next meal, take some of the bisurated magnesia as directed above, and you will find you sleep well and the usual belching, gas, sour stomach, bloating, indigestion and other conditions entirely removed." For sale by Benson Smith & Co., Chamber Drug Co., and Hollister Drug Co.—Adv.

WAR WORKER IS SENT TO PRISON FOR RECESS

PARIS, France.—French military courts are severe in war time. As an instance, a man named Petitnot, an auxiliary soldier of the 1935 class, employed on munition work, has just been sentenced to five years' penal servitude for absenting himself from his factory without leave.

The very genius of the islands finds expression in the romance-laden melodies of the ukulele. No instrument lends itself so readily to the mood of the player. The ease with which most people learn to play this entertaining instrument has not a little to do with its unusual popularity.

We carry a comprehensive stock of ukuleles. You will find here instruments that for workmanship and tone are musical masterpieces.
